SAN DIEGO GULLS ANNOUNCE PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT WITH PACIFIC PREMIER BANK

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Gulls announced today a new partnership agreement with Pacific Premier Bank, one of Southern California’s leading business banks.

“We are very excited to partner with Pacific Premier Bank,” said Gulls President of Business Operations Ari Segal. “Pacific Premier Bank has been a phenomenal partner for the Ducks and Honda Center, and we are thrilled to expand on that success and extend the relationship to San Diego.”

As part of the agreement, Pacific Premier Bank, an inaugural partner, will become the official business bank of the San Diego Gulls. Additionally, Pacific Premier Bank will be the presenting sponsor of Valley View Casino Center’s first row glass seats which will be named the “Ring of Honor Presented by Pacific Premier Bank Glass Seats.” With season seat deposits accepted since the announcement of the AHL’s Pacific Division on Jan. 29, this exclusive seating section has already sold out.

“We are excited and proud of our partnership with the San Diego Gulls Hockey Club,” said Steve Gardner, President and CEO of Pacific Premier Bank. “We see tremendous opportunity to continue to grow our relationships in the San Diego market, and this partnership highlights our commitment to the communities in and surrounding San Diego as well as the sport of hockey.”
